series.

Sidney Lanier was born at Magon, CA., in 1841, and died at Lynn, N. C., in 1851.

He was a private in the Confederate army, a lawyer for three years, a flute player at Ballimore and a lecturer on English liferature at Johns Hopkins Universities.

N the hearts of the Hills of Life I know Two springs that with unbroken flow Forever pour their lucent streams Into my soul's far Lake of Dreams.

Reneath the many changing sky, And mirror all of life and time, Screne and dainty pantomime.

Shot through with lights of stars and dawns, And shadowed sweet by ferns and fawns, Thus heaven and earth together vie Their shining depths to sanctify.

O Love. O Wife, thine eyes are they, My spring from out whose shining gray Issue the sweet celestial streams That feed my life's bright Lake of Dreams.

Oval and large and passion-pure And gray and wise and honor-sure; Soft as a dying violet-breath, Yet calmly unafraid of death.

With wife's and mother's and poor folk's loves, And home-loves and high glory-loves, And science-loves and story-loves.

And love for all that God and man And love for an east of plan, And lady-loves for spidery lace. And brolderies and supple grace.

And diamonds and the whole sweet round Of littles that large life compound, And love for God and God's bare truth, And loves for Magdalen and Ruth.

Dear eyes, dear eyes, and rare complete— Being heavenly sweet and earthly sweet— I marvel that God made you mine, For when He frowns 'tis then ye shine!

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ASHEVILLE, N. C., June 2.—The Domocratic primaries were held in Buncombe county yesterday. An exceedingly heavy vote was polled. The results show that Congressman J. M. Gudger, Jr., has been ranominated for the House of Representatives, scoring an easy victory over his opponents, F. R. Howitt and W. T. Crawford, J. Frazier Glenn outdistanced his judicial district. The contest for county tax collector is still undecided.

The heavy thunder and rainstorm of last night having demoralized the telephone and telegraph wires, making the roads very heavy, it may be some little time before the missing precincts are heard from Capitaln Fortune, the present incumbent, has been renominated for register of deeds, and Capitain T. F. Hunter has won the contest for sheriff.

Chairman M. L. Reed has again been nominated to his present position on the board of county commissioners. Dr. 2. R. Morris scored an easy victory for the position of coroner, an office he at present holds by appointment. Zebulon Weaver and R. J. Gaston are nominated representatives in the State Legislature, and present Bate Senator Charles A. Webb was unopposed for renomination.

T. M. Duckett, for county treasurer, and R. J. Stokley, for auditor, were renominated, in the policy in opposition.

These nominations are equivalent to election.

ONANCOCK, VA., June 3.—The farmers of Accomac and Northampton counties are jublish after the sensonable rain of Friday might and Saturday. A great drought had prevailed for the past six weeks, and the prospects for even a half of a crop of Irish potatoes were not the best. The crop from all appearance today will he as large as ever before marketed. The improvement is wonderful. The general manager of the Eastern Shore of Virginia Produce Exchange, Mr. William A. Hustin, stated yesterday that he expected this organisation to handle over half a million barrels this year as against 40,000 barrels in 1905. The shipments in large quanties will begin in about two weeks.

PEACH YELLOWS.

Suggestions By the State Entomologist to Allay It.

Mologist to Aliay It.

(Special to The Times-Lispatich.)

BLACKSBURG, VA., June 3.—No one has yet discovered the specific cause or cure for this disease. It is well known however, that it spreads with certainty and is quite such to destroy the trees it attacks. In some sections of the country yellows has become very prevaient, and it may oven discourage peach growing until methods of control become well understood.

The fruit usually ripens prematurely The fruit usually ripens prematurely on trees attacked by yellows the peaches on one or more limbs may ripen while those on the rest of the tree are suit perfectly green, yet in other cases the difference may not be so marked. Such fruit is likely to have rays of discoloration extending from the pit outward and is often insipid or even bitter to the taste. A well defined case usually shows a bushy growth of slender, why twigs at the ends of the limbs, and they often form late in the season after other growth has ceased. The leaves on these abnormal twigs are usually much smaller and more pointed than healthy leaves. The tree is well on the decline at this stage.

The tree is well on the decline at this stage.

At present no real remedy is known where once a trees has been attacked by yellows, but the disease can be controlled readily by destroying the trees as soon as they show the first symptoms. We may call this a drastic procedure, but it has been well demonstrated that is is effective inasmuch as the disease does not spread to any extent if this measure is followed up carefully. Dig the trees up by the roots, pile them in heaps and burn them; or, chop them off, leaving the stubs by which they may be pulled out at the earliest convenient

Do not confuse this disease with yellow leaves and the general decline of peach orchards. Trees badly injured by borers or in bad condition from othby borers or in bad condition from other cruates may ripen their fruit prematurely (trees in this condition are worth-less), but it will usually be in about the same condition over the entire tree.

subject of building a new hall several of the past masters and charter remibers of this lodge indulged in pleasant reminiscences in connection with the early history of the lodge, following the Civil War, when Ashland was a village. Allinsion was made in an interesting way of the days when Mr. John S. James took such an interested part in Masonic matters in Virginia, and to the acquiring of the present property, which was formerly known as "Slash Cottage." Messrs. Crew. Tiller and Jones took part in this discussion, and a high tribute was paid to Past Master W. J. Leake, now the president of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Raliread, to whom the lodge is so much indebted for his untring interest in Ashland Masonry.

The special report of Messrs. Howlson and Cox. the building committee, was discussed at length, and it was unanimously decided to commance building operations at once on the present site of the Masonic hall.

It was proposed to erect a spacious and modern hall, seventy by fifty feet, of two stories, on the present lot, opposite the terminus of the Chesapeake Buy Raliroad electric line and adjacent to the proparty formerly owned by Mrs. Houston. Plans and specifications have been submitted and an imposing structure will be immediately erected, Mr. E. A. Evans was appointed to supervise the building operations, and ground will be broken Masons of Virginia. The building will be so constructed as to provide a suitable town hall on the first floor. Ex-Governor Montague will probably deliver the Masonic address on the occasion of the laying of the corner-stone, as he is a prominent Mason and has always manifested a special interest in this lodge.

STRICT RULES FOR CADETS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., June 2.—Governot Glenn, on his return here this morning from Wadesboro and Elkin, said that he will within the next day or two issue an order for a special term of Anson County Superior Court for the trial of the men who have just been bound over the men who have just been bound over on the charge of participance in the lynching of J. V. Johnson last week. The Governor expressed much gratification at the earnest co-operation given him and the judge and solicitor in their work of getting together evidence indicating the identity of the lynchers. He says no effort or expense shall be spared in the work of bringing the lynchers to justice.

The Governor went from Wadesboro to Elkin, where he spent three days for rest and recreation, being the guest of Mr. Hugh G. Chatham, president of the North Carolina Railroad, while there. A charter was issued this maning for the Cape Fear Telephone Company, of Bonsal, Wake county. The capital is 51,750, and the incorporators are J. M. Boling, L. E. Rolins and T. E. Womble, of New Hill.

trusces of the A. and M. College, after hearing statements for the members of the faculty Friday night adopted stringent rules for the government of the college, so far as the discipline of the students is concerned, the purpose being to settle the differences that arose between faculty and students at the first of the last seasion, which brought about the expelling of several of the members of the senior and other classes for rebelling against an order issued, taking special privileges from the seniors. In the new regulation just adopted by the board these privileges are restored at the request of both faculty and students. The demarkation between the authority of the commandant and the president of the college are also more clearly stated to avoid clashes in that quarter. The board elected W. A. Syme, of Raleigh, assistant professor of chemistry. The board is carefully revising the college budget for the coming year. The salaries of a number of professors are increased. vising the college budget for the coming year. The salaries of a number of professors are increased. The running expenses of the college are something over $100,000 per year. The board has the apportionment of about $85,000, the remainder being the specific government appropriations and other special funds. The jury in the Federal Court this atternoon returned a verdict of guilty against William T. Turner, the young farmer of Durham county, for illicit distilling and furnishing meal and other supplies for other blockaders. He bought distilling and furnishing meal and other supplies for other blockaders. He bought by the car-load and distributed to small distillers for part of the output of their distilleries. He is known as the "King Bea" blockader. Judge Purnell has not yet pronounced sentence.

A member of the State Board of Asriculture said to-day, in speaking of the cattle quarantine work done by the department in the western part of the State, that, through the work of the department, the government quarantine has been raised from twelve counties in four years at a cost of about $15,000. This means not less, he says, than a saving of $5,000 for each of these counties shipped out of those counties to the Richmond and other markets.
